SAY 30,000 BE ON STRIKE

Seamens' union officials today asserted that 30,000 seamen would be on strike by tomorrow noon, according to information received at the Shipping Board here.

The strikers want employment of Americans first, a wage increase of $15 a month and an eight-hour day. Shipping Board officials planned to confer late today with strikers' representatives, in an effort to reach an agreement. The board has already offered a $10 a month wage

SEAMEN MEET TODAY TO CONSIDER OFFER OF U. S. SHIPPING BOARD

NEW YORK, July 14 -- Members of the Marine Firemen, Oilers and Water Tenders' Union were scheduled to meet today to consider an offer of the Federal Shipping Board, designed to and the strike of steamship workers which threatens to spread along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

The offer was made through Commissioner R. B. Stevens, of the Shipping Board. It provides for increases of $10 for deck officers, men in the engine rom, and stewards' department and for an eight-hour day in ports The board said it could not at this time favorably carry a three-crew deck watch. The deckmen are striking for three eight-hour deck watches and recognition of their union.
